Our weekly charges explained...

Before moving into your new home one of our Housing Officers will undertake a financial review to help identify any benefits or help with charges that you might be entitled to.

Housing Benefit may cover all or part of the following charges based on an assessment of your income, savings, property and other capital; if not, you must pay these charges in full:

Rent

This is the rental charge for your property.

Service

This charge covers the cost of the shared services we provide in your home such as heat & lighting, cleaning, gardening, laundry equipment & its upkeep and maintenance of common areas.

Supporting People may cover all or part of the following charges based on an assessment of your income, savings, property and other capital; if not, you must pay these charges in full:

Support

This covers the cost of providing you with tailored individual support and will be based on an assessment of your individual needs.

You are responsible for paying the following charges in full (unless otherwise stated):

Care

This covers the cost of meeting your assessed care needs. This will normally be paid by the local Health & Social Care Trust with the exception of Housing with Care.

Individual Care Charge

This charge is equivalent to your Personal Independence Payment (Daily Living Component) and reflects your individual care needs as assessed by the Social Security Agency.

Heat

This charge covers the cost of heating your individual home.

Food

This charge covers the cost of your meals. You will be refunded for any meals you choose not to take on the scheme.

Laundry

This optional charge covers the cost of us washing & ironing your laundry. You can choose not to use this service.

Cleaning

This charge covers the cost cleaning of your individual home and windows within certain Learning Disability schemes only.

Rates
